

Terms and conditions

1. The PoS-Finder web portal has been developed to complement the print objects "display" and "displayINTERNATIONAL" (magazines for sales promotion, marketing and PoP design) as an additional marketing and communication tool.

With its presentation opportunities, PoS-Finder is the European platform for suppliers and manufacturers of individual PoP designs.

Here, manufacturers of branded goods find their contacts for the entire field of BTL (below the line), just as they do in the magazines.

2. PoS-Finder is part of the display Group and is legally and economically part of display Verlags GmbH HRB 51314, companies' register, Hamburg.
3. PoS-Finder provides the data supplied by customers in the form of advertisements for Internet access. PoS Finder bears neither cost nor responsibility for transmitting data.
4. PoS-Finder is not responsible for data and advertisements supplied by customers and third parties; this also relates to contents, accuracy, design and completeness of data. If an authorised person does not agree with addresses and industries entered he/she is entitled to free correction.
5. The customer is responsible for timely transmission of the data to be published and must observe the provisions of data-protection legislation and expressly assures that these data comply with any applicable law. The customer indemnifies PoS Finder in case of any breach of the law in this context.
6. The customer knows that PoS-Finder has no influence on the way users use the data entered by PoS Finder. There is no liability for third parties using the data properly.
7. Entries with costs, XL or XXL are agreed to be valid for one year and are automatically extended by another year if they are not cancelled in writing with three months' notice. The contract term begins with the release of the entry/advertisement. The invoicing cycles (two months) are the same as those of the printed issue of display.
8. In the case of failed payment, PoS-Finder is entitled to terminate the web presence. In the case of links with other websites not in the responsibility of PoS-Finder, PoS finder has no responsibility whatsoever.
9. Hamburg is the court of jurisdiction, particularly for any default action.
